 Compassion - the desire to help someone who's in distress Suffering - pain experienced during an injury or loss. Wesak – a festival that celebrates the Buddha's birth, enlightenment, and death. Temple – a Buddhist place of worship.			Buddhism is the main religion in many Asian countries. It is a religion about suffering and the need to get rid of it. The religion is 2,500 years old and is followed by 350 million Buddhists worldwide. The Buddhist tradition is founded on and inspired by the teachings of Siddhartha Gautama. He was called the Buddha and lived in the 4th or 5th century B.C. in India. Buddhist believe that there is a cycle of birth, life and death and rebirth. Breaking out of the cycle is called Nirvana. It is the end of everything that is not perfect. It is perfect peace, free of suffering. Buddhist celebrate Wesak festival, annually, during the first full moon in May. Buddhists in different countries celebrate Lunar New Year on different days and are expected to visit a nearby temple on New Years Day. In Thailand, Songkran 'The festival of water' is a celebration to mark the start of the Buddhist New Year. It is celebrated on the 13th April. During the festival, Buddha images are bathed, and younger Thais show respect to monks and elders by sprinkled water over their hands. There are also water fights across the country.
 Monk – a man who lives apart from society and devotes his life to religion Buddha – 'the awakened one' - a man Siddhartha Gautama who gave up his royal life and found the path to Enlightenment.
