 Explorer – a person who explores a new or unfamiliar area. Captain - the person in command of a ship. Pacific Ocean – is the largest and deepest of the world's oceans. Discover – to find unexpectedly or during a search.		James Cook was born on October 27th, 1728 in Marton, Yorkshire, England. He decided to join the Royal Navy in 1755 and learnt to sail ships. In 1768 he was given the job of being in command of his first ship, called the Endeavour. Captain Cook and his crew sailed into the Pacific Ocean and on April 19th 1770 they found Australia. Captain Cook wanted to discover more places and in 1772 set sail again. His two ships came very close to the Antarctic but they had to turn back because of the cold. He created the first accurate map of the Pacific Ocean
